

hertsbaseball.com

PUBLIC ANNOUNCER (HEMEL HEMPSTEAD)

Location	Grovehill Ballpark, Hemel Hempstead.
Financial terms	£50 per season
Employment status	Self-employed status in accordance with HMRC guidelines. Self-employed individuals are responsible for calculating and paying their own tax and NICs on any payments made to them.
Time commitment	Between 6 and 8 home game days. Games usually start at 12am and end at around 4pm. Some events are on Sundays, and some on Saturdays.
Project description	Herts Baseball Club hosts exciting youth league baseball events during the season. Music and game announcements play an important part at these events.
Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Set up public announce system for each event• Announce starting line-ups, in-game announcements, public address announcements, presentations, sponsorship announcements, contests, and upcoming events.• Prepare a playlist of songs ahead of the event and store them on a device compatible with the club's public announce system• Play music between innings and other periods during the event• Announce catering, merchandise and other promotions, or upcoming events.• Issue health and safety announcements and appropriate instructions in the event of an emergency.• Provide helpful venue information• Be able to give statistics and announce names of players and officials.• Study layout of event venue.• Work with event director to ensure timing of announcements.• Announce updated scores from around the league
Skills required	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ability to operate a public announce system and music

- playing devices
- Good communication skills.
 - Reliability and responsibility.
 - Enthusiasm
 - Good management and organisational skills.
 - Friendliness and approachability.

Qualifications required N/A

Special conditions N/A

Application process To apply for this project, please contact us providing details of relevant experience, skills and qualifications, if applicable.

Applications Deadline No particular deadline has been set. Applications will be considered until the appointment is announced.